FOREWORD

The Senior Class of 1946 is the first in the past five years to graduate in a world of peace. They are the first in this period of time to receive their diplomas without the consciousness of the distant roar of cannon or the dire destruction of devastating bombs. Though there are yet threatening clouds of unrest and discouraging rumors of misunderstanding, yet they can be truly thankful that peace and quietness smiles upon them as they leave these halls of learning.

For several years the members of the present Senior Class have been under the constant care and guidance of the Mayodan High School. It has been the aim and desire of the faculty and the administration to implant into their minds and hearts those ideals which lead to a deeper understanding of life and a greater appreciation of service to humanity. We trust, therefore, that their experiences here have not been merely that of so-called book-learning, but that their characters have been so nurtured and developed that they will go out and make the world better by their having lived.

The faculty, the members of the local school board and the citizens of the community are proud of this class. We are sending them out into the vast university of experience, and we trust that they will live such noble lives of usefulness that they will make us proud to call them our boys and girls. Never before have graduates of this institution faced a greater opportunity to serve their fellowman. We trust that they will accept the challenge of service that beckons to them on every side, and that they will never shirk when duty calls.

In spite of the discouraging pitfalls that may seem from time to time to lie ahead, there is still much to live for; there are greater hopes and aspirations for the future than the world has ever known before.

Beyond the horizon of chaos and turmoil, the sun is yet shining; beyond the dismal clouds of misunderstanding and darkness, there is still hope and love, and we can give to the world the best that is in us. We should have faith in ourselves, faith in our fellowmen, faith in God. Through faith we can develop a mighty bulwark against the evils and vicissitudes of this modern world.

We are ever mindful of our boys and girls who defended Old Glory throughout the uttermost parts of the earth during the recent World War. Some of them made the supreme sacrifice, and with heavy hearts we pay tribute to their sacred memory. We trust that their sacrifice shall not be in vain, but that every effort both of the living and the dead shall lead to a great and lasting peace.

We now send the members of the Class of 1946 out from the Mayodan High School with the hope that they will prove worthy of the faith and confidence we have bestowed in them. May God bless them, and may they go forth as heralds of Peace and Goodwill.

To our friend and former classmate, Bernard "Shag" Myers, whose qualities of leadership and school spirit helped to guide us through our high school career, we respectfully dedicate this, The Anchor of 1946.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is the year 1956 and I have just returned from a conference in Washington, where I have been interpreting for a French Delegete. I am seated at my desk when all of a sudden the door opens. I look up and who should I see but my Senior Class of '46. Everyone is excited and wanting to tell me of his experiences.

1. Fannie Louise Duggins, after serving many years as a private secretary has opened her own private school for secretaries. Her slogan, "We aim to please."
2. Bryce Hurd, after training many years to be a football coach, has realized his greatest ambition. He is now chief cook and bottle washer in the U. S. Army.
3. Beverly Johnson, after spending many years in schools and colleges, she has wasted all her book learning on men. She is now successfully married.
4. Bobby Joyce, after delivering papers for so long, is now editor of The Mayodan Herald.
5. James Kaltreider, after many long and laborious years is now a successful physician.
6. Betty Anne Rader, our Southern gal, has gone North, and is a dietician at The Walter Reed Hospital. She is now married to the head Dr.
7. Irene Reddick, after serving several years as a student nurse, is now Superintendent of Nurses at the Kaltreider Dog Hospital.
8. Billy Shreve, after collecting records for the past 20 years, finally has enough of them to start his own record shop.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1942 thirty-six Freshmen entered Mayodan High School with Miss Mary Lib Ingram and Miss Gladys Joyce as homeroom teachers. Due to the size of this class it had to be divided into two separate rooms.

As many of our group had left school, we were able to combine the classes in our Sophomore year with Miss Virginia Bailey as our leader. After two months she found it necessary to resign, and Dr. Howell Pickett took her place as a substitute. Upon the arrival of Miss Kathleen Hardee, Dr. Pickett left for Oak Ridge, Tennessee, to do research work on the atomic bomb.

During the third year, Mrs. Millard Hall was our guiding light who helped us through a very full year. Also in our Juniou year the following six agreed to take extra courses and go to summer school in order to finish high school in four years instead of the prescribed five: Betsy Rader, Fannie L. Duggins, Bobby Joyce, Josephine Purgason, Beverly Johnson, and Irene Reddick.

The year of '46 found us preparing to don the "cap and gown". Bryce Hurd, Sammy Sharron, Jimmy Kaltreider, and Billy Shreve joined us in our Senior year making the enrollment number ten. We are all very grateful to Miss Lorraine Shropshire, our Senior leader, for her interest in us and for all the advice she has given us.

Too, we wish to express our thanks to the remainder of the faculty for the part they played in our education.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of '46, some slightly erratic, but the majority sound of mind, on this 30th day of May, in the year of 1946 do declare this writing to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other testimonial writings heretofore made by us. Do hereby will and bequeath, all property, real and personal, of which we the testators are at this time possessed to be bestowed as follows:

To wit:

Bryce's love for football to Gene Freeman. Beverly's and Betty Anne's love for history, as well as their history notes, to Toby and Billy. Jimmy's regular attendance in class to Gene Joyce and Norman Wray. Irene's blond hair to Jane Richardson (You can try peroxide, Jane). Jimmy Kaltreider's perfect pronunciation to Maxine and Betty Jane. Sammy's and Bryce's draft cards to anyone who is willing to take them. Billy Shrove's love for geometry to Melvin Powers and Edgie Richardson. Fannie's ability to get to school on time to Edith (Why don't you go to bed early, Edith?) Bobby's love for French to Melvin (Hope it will help you, Melvin). Betty Anne's job of cleaning the basketball court to Edna (You don't need a broom, Edna) Jo's freckles to Margaret Mitchell. Fannie's height to Doris. Billy's love for playing records to Jewel and Creola. Bev's talkativeness on class to Mildred Adams. Jo's love for the males to Tubby (The kind that doesn't need stamps). Bet's love for writing notes to Edgie. Bobby's curly hair to Frankie. Fannie's perfect attendance record to Frances, Marty, and Lickey. To the faculty a new frame of mind, one of peace. To the Freshmen, Sophomore, and Junior Classes we leave our good examples, to be followed to the letter. To old I. H. S. we leave our appreciation for the ideals, for the knowledge gained, and for the happy associations during the past four years. Our best wishes to go with you always.

EIGHTH GRADE

JUNIOR CLASS

The ship MAYODAN HIGH SCHOOL ELEVENTH embarked from Ignorance Port on September 6, 1945 — to journey toward the new and unexplored Sea of Higher Learning. The crew — twenty-two members — all able-bodied seamen had at the helm, as Captain: Mildred Atkins.

The crew came ashore at "Actor's Harbor" because of stormy weather and an epidemic of influenza. They viewed "Brothers of Belinda" and saw Martene Smith and Melvin Powers in actors' garb.

In April, a feast for the members of the natives of Senior Village, was given and then to show appreciation for their painstaking efforts, a night of fun and laughter. All symbols of the friendship between the two best known tribes, the Juniors and Seniors

On May 29th, we dropped anchor at the Port of Knowledge, a weary, but still a united crew of twenty-two members who were well seasoned seamen ready to embark again in September upon a much more treacherous course.

SOPHOMOIRE CLASS

Our class began this year with forty pupils, four of who have left us for jobs and other schools. Those who have left school are: Garnette Collins, Virginia Goad, Jeannette Grogan, and Dan White.

We have had a difficult time keeping a home room teacher this year. At the beginning of the year our home room teacher was Mrs. Ila Hooker, whom we liked very much. We did not have a regular home room teacher for two months. During this time we had two substitutes: Mrs. Jane McNaught, and Lt. G. W. Holmes. We finally succeeded in getting Miss Hildreth Gabriel from High Point for our regular teacher. We have enjoyed having her as our advisor very much.

Our class has been interested in basketball this year. Those who represented our class were: Viola Case, Margaret Martin, Donny Montgomery, Bill Robertson Ray Martin, and Glenn Reddick.

FRESHMAN CLASS

On September 6, 1945, thirty-six students began their career as freshmen in high school and were noted for their ignorance. However, under the guidance of Mr. R. J. Atkins we set forth to reach the goals of understanding, knowledge, and truth. By the end of the year seven of our students had stopped school to go to work.

The freshmen of 1945 and '46 contributed it's bit to the high school basketball team for out of our class went the following athletes: Patsy Martin, Barbara Veach, Robinette Farmer, Lincoln Pike, and Tommy Barrow.

Assistant Art Editor	Eldridge Richardson

The Editors of Mayodan High School's 1946 year book, proudly, but not boastfully present this edition of the ANCHOR.

We, the Editors have strived to the best of our ability, to make the ANCHOR of 1946 a successful one.

The Editors of the ANCHOR of former editions, undoubtedly put forth much effort and work to make their book the best, and their book was of good quality but this year we have willingly put forward greater effort to improve the ANCHOR.

So, we bring to you this edition of the ANCHOR for all to judge unbiasedly.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

1. The first of the three main functions of the Office of the Director is to provide a clear and concise statement of the mission and vision of the organization. This statement should be developed in consultation with the Board of Directors and should serve as a guiding principle for all of the organization's activities.

2. The second main function of the Office of the Director is to develop and implement the organization's strategic plan. This plan should be based on a thorough analysis of the organization's current position and the opportunities and challenges it faces in the future. The strategic plan should be developed in consultation with the Board of Directors and should serve as a blueprint for the organization's long-term success.

3. The third main function of the Office of the Director is to monitor and evaluate the organization's performance. This should be done on a regular basis, using a variety of methods and tools. The results of the evaluation should be used to identify areas for improvement and to develop corrective action plans.

The Office of the Director is responsible for ensuring that the organization is operating in a manner that is consistent with its mission and vision. It is also responsible for ensuring that the organization is meeting its financial and operational goals.

The Office of the Director is also responsible for providing leadership and guidance to the organization's staff. This includes setting the organization's priorities and ensuring that the staff is working together effectively to achieve those priorities.

The Office of the Director is also responsible for ensuring that the organization is compliant with all applicable laws and regulations. This includes developing and implementing policies and procedures that ensure compliance and monitoring the organization's performance to ensure that it is meeting those standards.

The Office of the Director is also responsible for ensuring that the organization is maintaining accurate and up-to-date records. This includes developing and implementing policies and procedures for record management and monitoring the organization's performance to ensure that it is meeting those standards.

Girls Captain - - Beverly Johnson
Co-Captain - - Betty Anne Rader
Manager - - Bryce Hund
Girls Referee - - John O. Drake
Players - - Martene Smith, Edith Barrow,
Margaret Martin, Viola Case,
Edna Glidewell, Betty Anne
Rader, Beverly Johnson, Dorothy
Ledbetter, and Robinette Farmer.

The girls began their practice last fall with all veterans returning except one.

Ed Reynolds, who coached the girls last year, continued his fine work. Pleasing results were obtained from hard and strenuous practice. During the season the girls played seventeen games winning ten and losing seven. This result was far better than last year's.

In the Rockingham County Tournament, the girls played Stoneville in the first game, losing in an extra five minute period thirty-three to thirty-two. The game was tied twenty-eight - twenty-eight when the final whistle blew, making it necessary to play this extra five minute period.

After the Rockingham County Tournament, the girls entered the Journal and Sentinel Tournament. In their first game of the tournament they played Pinnacle, but unfortunately they lost, the score being twenty-seven and nineteen favoring Pinnacle.

Having a more experienced team and only two regulars graduating, Betty Anne Rader and Beverly Johnson, we hope to have a far better team next year with the additional freshmen who will make the team stronger.

With all veterans returning this year, the boys began their practice with "Shine" Joyce coaching. "Shine" led them through several weeks of good practice. Later Ed Reynolds, who was more experienced in basket-ball, led the boys through further training. During this period of training the boys learned many new plays which aided the boys in winning the County Tournament. The team won 18 games during the season, and lost only 4.

In the Rockingham County Tournament the boys became champions after winning all three games against Ruffin, Stoneville, and Reidsville. Being champions of Rockingham County the boys entered the Journal and Sentinel Tournament at Winston-Salem, and the Greensboro County Champions' Tournament at Guilford College.

In the Greensboro Tournament the first game was forfeited to Mayodan by Siler City when they withdrew from the tournament. In the second game Mayodan played Trinity - losing 15 to 34.

The boys were more successful in the Journal-Sentinel Tournament. They won the first two games against West Jefferson, and Mt. Gilead. In the third game the boys lost to Fieldale 17 to 31.

Losing only one regular, Sammy Sharron, the boys are looking forward to becoming champions again next year.
